2.8. We recommend that customers who use 100% of the VPS processor resources for a continuous duration of more than 48 hours should contact us to implement an upgrade of the Service as such use may lead to the suspension of the account.

2.9. Combridge will implement any requests and decisions of authorized bodies and institutions, including criminal and judicial bodies, for refusing Client's access to the Service, deleting VPS content, providing any Client information (including identification data, payment method and invoices). In this situation there is no obligation to inform the Client in advance or to perform any other formalities, and Combridge cannot be held responsible for the breach of confidentiality.

2.10. The Client declares that he understands and accepts that he is sole responsible, unlimited, for violating any of the above mentioned prohibitions, and that in these cases the Provider has the right to change, block, suspend, terminate service and delete the Server content, without performing any formalities, the Client shall immediately compensate Combridge for any and all damages caused in breach of these provisions.

2.11. The Client declares, accepts and undertakes to comply with any notices, warnings submitted by the Provider or published on the Site while using the VPS Service.

2.12 The Client declares that he understands and accepts the provided Service is solely the property of Combridge and that the intellectual and industrial rights for any software, design, program or any other content in connection with the Service belongs exclusively to the Provider. In the event of any violation of these rights of the Provider, by the Client, the Provider reserves the right to cease immediately the provision of the Service, to delete the content of the Server and to initiate any legal procedures that he considers necessary.

3. Promotional coupons rules

3.1. Promotional coupons (vouchers) are provided by Combridge SRL and are generated on the occasion of various promotions. Coupons can have different values, according to ongoing promotions.

3.2. Vouchers are chronologically allocated in the order of email registration, one promotional coupon for each email address, until the total number of coupons is exhausted. The registration will be made on the website cloudes.ro using the email address. The system will automatically allocate the coupons

3.3. The coupon details will be sent to the email address; the promotional code can be used just once by a user / email address

The promotional code can only be used by registered users via the email address for which the promotional coupon has been allocated. We reserve the right to suspend the accounts of users who have used the promotional code assigned to a different email address than the one they have registered on www.cloudes.ro. Promotional coupon credit can only be used to purchase VPS services through the official website www.cloudes.ro, on the terms and conditions detailed on this site.

3.4. After the expiration of the coupon's validity, either by reaching its value by activating VPS services or by the expiration of the coupon duration specified by the Provider, the purchased services will keep the status displayed in the control panel > VPS list; this status might determine payment obligations for the user/Client. If you do not want to use the services after the expiration of the coupon's validity, please delete all VPSs created to avoid charging according to the offer on the site. For more details, please refer to the terms and conditions of the contract and / or the Frequently Asked Questions section or contact us at hello@cloudes.ro

3.5. We reserve the right to modify this regulation, followed by notice to users by publishing changes on the www.cloudes.ro site under the Terms and conditions for Use of the Site, that can be accessed by the Customer at any time.
